To perpetuate the memory of Kendall college athletes and to aid in the development of athletics at the Presbyterian institution a "K" club, composed of all Kendall college men who have earned Kendall letters, was formed yesterday.

The following officers were elected: Arthur Wallace, president; Phillip Irvin, vice president; Paul Dunham, secretary-treasurer; Ralph Lamb, sergeant at arms.

The annual Kendall college football banquet is to be held December 13. The banquet is a means of expressing appreciation for the efforts of the orange and black gridsters and is the second to be held for an all-victorious and state and south-western championship eleven, the first being in 1916.

The Kendall Presbyterians and Boston Avenue Methodist basketball five of the Tulsa Church basketball league are to meet Friday night for the championship deciding game. Both quintets are undefeated in the church league.

CARPENTIER IS READY

Frenchman Concludes Work in Preparation for Battle With Beckett Tomorrow.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of France, who will meet Joe Beckett, heavyweight champion of England, in a title fight Thursday evening had ended his active training today except for light daily workouts at his quarters at Stanmore to keep his muscles supple.

Carpentier is confident that his ring experience and craftiness will bring him victory despite Beckett's advantage of 14 pounds in weight.

The belief is generally current among local fight followers, however, that there will be a knockout before the fifteenth round. Most of the English sportsmen are putting their money on Beckett.

Beckett has been specializing in building up his defense during his training at Southampton, but he is not expected to fight a defensive battle.

Both fighters are in the pink of condition.

Unbiased students of boxing among the English fight fans admit that Carpentier's skill will more than offset Beckett's heavier tactics should the Englishman attempt to "wade in" and finish the contest up quickly.

STORES IN LITIGATION

Suit Is Filed to Set Aside Transfer of Upp Grocery Company to Tulsa Grocery Company.

Asking the transfer of the Upp Grocery company to the Tulsa Grocery company be set aside, suit was filed in district court yesterday by J. C. Bender and the Mount Pleasant Canning company against W. G. Upp, O. E. Upp, L. J. Upp and A. J. Ruid, wherein the plaintiff asks the defendants and the Tulsa Grocery company, successor of the Upp Grocery company, set aside the transfer of the Upp company in favor of the plaintiff.

Bender claims that his company obtained two judgments, one for $1,069.38 and one for $379.25 in superior court in Tulsa county against the Upp Grocery company but that before they could lay on the property of the Upp company the business had been sold to the Tulsa Grocery company and the plaintiff thereby deprived of their rights under the judgments of the court.
